Opening Day 1997

"The Old Beach Bank"

This building began its history as the first and only bank to operate on Wrightsville Beach. It opened in 1962 as the Bank of Eastern North Carolina. John F. Kennedy was in the White House, The Rolling Stones first performed at London's Marquee Club and Mickey Mantle was baseball's MVP. The large brick structure next to our bar is the original bank vault and the drive thru window is behind the beer taps. It served the Locals for two decades but closed in 1985. The following years the building housed a variety of businesses including A&G Sportswear, PT's Grill, The Olde Bank Café, Gregory's Cafe, & Kelly's Sunset Grill.

In 1996 Wrightsville Beach endured two direct hits from back to back major hurricanes, Bertha and Fran. This building flooded with sea water well above the brick walls. The community rebuilt and in the Spring of 1997 South Beach Grill was opened by John & Elaine Andrews and John Royster. It continues to serve the people of Wrightsville and the many guests who visit our island paradise. We hope you enjoy our hospitality & we appreciate the opportunity to serve you. - John & Elaine Andrews
